Hey,

We just wanted to send you a little something to say we've missed seeing you in the office and a big thank you for your hard work and perseverance during these strange times!

Hopefully (subject to Government guidelines), we will start to see some co-workers return to the office from the 13 July.

Until then please keep up the great work and enjoy the sweet treat on us... and if it packs not your thing then enjoy passing this on as a little gift to your friends or family!

Best wishes,

The UK Leadership Team.
